

THE 5 STEP PROCESS TO BECOMING PART OF WOMEN OF THE WORLD

1

Initial Call Introduction:

introducing myself and the wow group with a warm greeting. Explain more about the WOW group, its purpose, and goals. Provide a brief overview of the activities and opportunities available within the group.

2

Email to Young Person (YP)

Send an email to the young person with a link to complete prior to the wow group member welcome call. The link should contain any necessary forms or information required for onboarding.

Welcome Pack

After the completion of the form, a welcome pack will be sent out in the post. The welcome pack should include essential information about the WOW group, upcoming events, and how to get involved.

Meeting Other Young Women

Encourage the new member to meet other young women on teams as and when they wish to. Emphasise the importance of connection and building positive relationships within the group.

5

Involvement in Events

Guide the new member on how to get involved in upcoming events, workshops, courses, and trips. Provide information on how to register for these activities and participate actively.
